Tom Kilduff Honored with 2025 Special Service Award

The Special Service Award is presented by the New Jersey Warehouse & Movers Association (NJWMA) to recognize an individual whose long-term dedication, leadership, and support have made a lasting impact on the Association and the moving industry.

At the NJWMA's 56th Annual Convention at the Golden Nugget in Atlantic City, Tom Kilduff was honored with the 2025 Special Service Award in recognition of his 24 years of service on the Board of Directors and his outstanding contributions to the Association.

Tom first joined the NJWMA Board in 2002, following in the footsteps of his father, Jack Kilduff. Over the years, he has served in many roles, including President from 2019 to 2022 and Chairman from 2022 through 2025. His leadership, reliability, and calm guidance have earned him deep respect among his peers and colleagues.

Tom's career in the moving industry spans decades, beginning with his family business, Security Transfer and Storage, before continuing at All Jersey Movers, Lowy's Moving, and currently at Sea Cure Moving, where he is recognized as one of the company's top salesmen. Throughout his career, Tom has built a reputation for professionalism, teamwork, and always being the first to lend a hand.

As he retires from the NJWMA Board, Tom plans to enjoy a well-earned chapter of adventure—traveling the country in his Winnebago, exploring national parks, and creating new stories along the way.

NJWMA extends heartfelt thanks to Tom Kilduff for his years of leadership, service, and friendship, and wishes him all the best in his next journey.
